CONSUMER REPORT DISCLOSURE

THIS DOCUMENT CONSTITUTES A DISCLOSURE REGARDING THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT AS IT APPLIES TO YOU

Congress enacted the Fair Credit Reporting Act, in part, to protect consumers by ensuring the accuracy of “consumer reports” and the fairness of the procedures involved in obtaining them. As an applicant for employment with Second Baptist Church or Second Baptist School, or as a current employee of Second Baptist Church or Second Baptist School, you are a protected “consumer” under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

Under certain circumstances, as described below, the Fair Credit Reporting Act permits Second Baptist Church or Second Baptist School to request a “consumer report” about you from a “consumer reporting agency” and to use the report in evaluating you for employment, promotion, reassignment or retention as an employee.

As defined in the Fair Credit Reporting Act, a “consumer report” is “any written, oral, or other communication of any information by a consumer reporting agency bearing on a consumer’s credit worthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living which is used or expected to be used or collected in whole or in part for the purpose of serving as a factor in establishing the consumer’s eligibility for employment purposes.” The definitions of “consumer report” include reports based upon information gathered from personal interviews with friends, acquaintances and fellow workers, as well as reports based upon information compiled from public records.

A “consumer reporting agency” is “any person who, for monetary fees, dues, or on cooperative nonprofit basis, regularly engaged in whole or in part the practice of assembling or evaluating consumer credit information or other information on consumers for the purpose of furnishing consumer reports to third parties.” This definition includes individual investigators, collection agencies and other related agencies.

Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, Second Baptist Church or Second Baptist School cannot request and obtain a “consumer report” about you without your authorization. You also have the right to request that Second Baptist Church or Second Baptist School make a disclosure to you regarding the nature and scope of any investigation about you that will involve personal interviews. You must make this request in writing.

After obtaining a “consumer report” about you, if Second Baptist Church or Second Baptist School determines not to hire, promote, reassign (or maintain you in your current position), or retain you as an employee based upon the report, you are entitled to certain information before Second Baptist Church or Second Baptist School takes such action. Second Baptist Church or Second Baptist School must provide you with a copy of the: “consumer report” and a written description of your rights as a “consumer” under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

I have read the above “notification and understand its meaning.
